Interesting and FUNBy Bec - CPAI enjoyed every word in this book. It is interesting, fast reading and FUN to read.I highly recommend it to not only people from New Hampshire but New England in general. For those of you living outside of the New England area, it is a must read so you can understand the rest of us!

Hilarious New Hampshire storyteller Rebecca Rule performs in every nook and cranny of the state, so you can bet she knows how to speak and understand the local language. In Headin' for the Rhubarb, she shares that knowledge to help visitors, transplants, and natives alike make sense of the state's unique vernacular and pronunciations. And she has a good time doing it!
