We brought it with us to DCA and it added a lot to our trip for our kid, and us as well! Fun visual scavenger hunts, quizzes (which our kid loves!), and pictures of hidden Mickeys, but you have to find where they are. Good book for Disney fans as well, there were (many) times I found myself looking up challenges before the kiddo asked! And some of the questions were hard enough that I had to cheat and look it up on my phone - but, it was stuff I didn't already know and I thought I knew most of it being a pretty big DLR fan. The book was small enough that it fit in the front pocket of our back pack so it was easy to bring to the park. It actually fit in my front pocket, but I may have big pockets? Well worth the $10 to make an already magical trip just a little bit more fun.

AWESOME BOOK I am pre-teen (12), and I took my book to Disney's California Adventure last week. I was glad to see it fit in my pocket so it was easy to carry. This was my first time to California Adventure since Cars Land opened, and it was nice to see that land was in the book. I love the new Cars Land, it's great, but the book made it even more fun. All the new stuff was in the book. I couldn't finish everything but had a great time with it! I hope to finish the other quests next time I go. I think people of all ages will love this book, I know I did. I trying to figure stuff out when I was in line for a ride, then I went on my hunt for the answers and finding the hidden mickeys.
