From Kathryn Fulton : Hikers' Stories from the Appalachian Trail before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Hikers' Stories from the Appalachian Trail:

Collection of highlights from twenty-one Appalachian Trail blogs Stories are told by thru-hikers and section hikers, northbounders and southbounders Tales of ice storms and tornados, accounts of trail magic and surprising generosity, encounters with snakes and other wildlife, descriptions of wilderness beauty, and hikers' musings on living life to the fullest
