Love the ratings systemBy AlienCabbagesI own 5 or 6 hiking books about Marin and this absolutely is the best one. Love the ratings system, find the information accurate, and appreciate the ability to download online. Don even effectively shows you the best direction to go in a loop. A Great ReferenceBy J. R.If you like to hike in Marin County, this book is for you. Every hike shows a detailed map of the trail and also a general county map with the hike's location, quick directions for getting there, hike difficulty rating, % shade/sun, best time of year to hike (mud, wildflowers, waterfalls) and a brief description with turn-points and parking noted.Other books give you too much information. Don't spend your time reading about hiking -- get out there and enjoy yourself! See you on the trails.

More than 5 million people visit Marin County each year to enjoy the area's parks and open spaces. With a relief map for each hike, here are 133 tested trails in favorite spots like Mount Tamalpais, Muir Woods, Point Reyes, and Angel Island for hikers of every level.
