welcome and in what way, such as leash or not and what length of leash. Excellent book. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great resource for planning a hike By Erin Bart Extremely useful for ideas/info before a trip. Planned a weekend away with my husband and hit as many waterfalls as we could on the way up to Niagara and this book took us to some beautiful spots. This is not a trail guide and it's not for taking with you on a hike (not travel sized) but the info, photos, maps, etc are extremely useful for planning. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. If you like that mentioned book/exploring (roadside to good hike) By Brian Kedzierski Superb color photos and well done location/trail maps. It has different/not all the waterfalls listed in the 200 Waterfalls of WNY/CNY book. If you like that mentioned book/exploring (roadside to good hike), this one is for you.

From the top of the Adirondack Northway to the precipitous drop that creates Niagara Falls, Hiking Waterfalls in New York State provides all of the information readers need to find their way to waterfalls hidden in the crevices of the Catskill Mountains, high on the faces of the High Peaks, flowing through magnificent gorges into the Finger Lakes, or deep in the backcountry of the Southern Tier. Detailed driving and hike descriptions include slices of history and glimpses of geology. GPS coordinates, maps, and color photos of over 100 of the state's best waterfalls make certain that hikers and sightseers will find their way to these sparking gems, whether they can be seen from the roadside or at the end of a lengthy trail. The book has less than 10 percent overlap with FalconGuides' popular Hiking New York.

About the Author Randi Minetor has traversed the beautiful routes and byways of New York state while writing Hiking Waterfalls New York. Her books include Scenic Routes Byways New York for Globe Pequot Press, Backyard Birding: A Guide to Attracting and Identifying Birds for Lyons Press, five books on hiking in New York State in the Best Easy Day Hikes series, and five books each in the National Park Pocket Guide and Guided Tours Through History series, also for Globe Pequot Press. She is best known for her Passport To Your National Parks Companion Guides series for FalconGuides. Her husband, photographer Nic Minetor, is a professional lighting designer for theater, film, opera, dance, and television, including the popular PBS series "Second Opinion" and more than 20 seasons of the Eastman School of Music's Opera Theatre. His photos are also featured in the Quick Reference Guides to the Birds, Trees, and Wildflowers of New York.
