Marjori Gersh Young : Hot Springs and Hot Pools of the Northwest before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Hot Springs and Hot Pools of the Northwest:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Hot Springs/Pools Guide -- good book!By Margaret RiceGreat book, we were looking for something exactly like this. Gives you where, what type of hot springs (individual tubs, pool, springs in the ground) if there is camping, lodge, etc. We have visited one of the hot springs on two separate occasions and will be checking out others in the future. I think this is a good book, easier than researching all over the internet.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Four StarsBy Kurt K.Great products quick shipping too!!4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. great for the camping peopleBy Gary KingThis is the second of these books I bought first one I wore out. It gives very good directions and I have been to alot of the hotsprings around Oregon and Idaho, this is a must for anyon wanting to check out hotsprings.

The Premier Hot Springs Guidebook for Natural Hot Springs Resorts in the NW United States. If you are looking for places to stay on a road trip, or upscale spa's and resorts, this book has it all! Detailed descriptions, directions, and photos of hundreds of hot springs and resorts in Oregon, Washington, Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, British Columbia, Alberta, Alaska, Puerto Rico.

Hot Springs and Hot Pools of the Northwest should be very high on your 'don't leave home without it' list. Buy two: one for your house where you plan all your trips and definitely one to take with you. --hotspringsandpools.com About the Author I have been involved in the writing and production, and now the publication, of these books for over fifteen years, having visited a majority of the springs listed in the books. I originally became involved with this labor of love while working with Jayson Loam, the original author of these guide books. I love visiting the springs and working with others to help preserve these precious natural resources.
