was the first book my revenue team read as part of our book club. Myself and 20 other revenue professionals read and discussed this book. It was a great tool for the team to better understand the impact of social and how necessary it is to understand the social world. This was an outstanding book which started a lot of really good dialog among the team. I highly recommend this book with real hotel examples and ideas that can be easily implemented into your strategy today! Its also a good read for other disciplines in the Hospitality world, sales and marketing, front office team and General Managers.
