By CustomerI purchased this book as a paperback, and found it so helpful I ended up buying it for my Kindle as well. The digital edition makes city names and landmarks searchable. I love everything about this guide and recommend it to anyone I know who visits Chicago with an eye for culture. This guide leaves no stone unturned regarding Chicago's complex and layered architectural landscape!

By K. MallonfieldThis book was well worth the money! We used it constantly during a 3-day trip to Chicago. The author studied art, so there were many interesting tidbits about art and architecture. The maps were easy to read. She included bus/train info for those without access to cars who wanted to go to areas outside of downtown.
