At least half of this pocket-sized booklet contains geographical names ...By RockyPalomino At least half of this pocket-sized booklet contains geographical names, Alaska Native words, and several terms that are not unique to Alaska. Other words/phrases seem dated (it's now been over 20 years since publication). It's written with humor, but often it is just plain goofy. Recommendation: Find a different book about Alaskan regionalisms.

By D. Detrick
The book is good for a few laughs of local Alaskan lingo and customs. Also, you learn a lot, too. Fun for Alaskan enthusiasts.

By Cmdr Riker
The book was a good start on phrases and meanings, but it was only a third as long as it should have been. The material was fine, but just too short. Had the book been regular sized, it probably would have been about 4 pages.

Alaska Tuxedo? Bunny boots? Learn how to speak the lingo of the Last Frontier.
