From Brand: University of Nebraska Press : Images of the Plains: The Role of Human Nature in Settlement before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Images of the Plains: The Role of Human Nature in Settlement:

Sixteen papers by foremost American, Canadian, and English historical geographers examine the sources of Imagery of the American and Canadian Great Plains, the processes of image formation, and the behavioral implications of various kinds of images. The papers deal with exploratory images of the Plains, resource evaluation in the prefrontier West, governmental appraisal of the western frontier, real and imagined climatic hazards, the desert and garden myths, and adaptations to reality.

About the Author Brian W. Blouet is associate professor and Merlin P. Lawson is assistant professor of geography at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.
