I am glad I bought it.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Highly recommend! I am a Sister on the Fly #2937 ...By Dog LoverGot it read the entire book nonstop! It held me in anticipation of each day's travels the photos! Highly recommend! I am a Sister on the Fly #2937 dream of going on a trip like this some day!1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Fun read, lots of pictures.By S. BaurFun read with lots of photos. My only criticism is that the photos tend to be small. I'd rather have fewer easier to see pix, but that's a minor issue.

In 2015, a group of bold women decided to make history and embark on an unforgettable adventure down America's most famous road a journey of exploration and sisterhood where they could fulfill every woman's fantasy of leaving-it-all-behind. Their rules were simple: no men, no pets, no kids, and... be nice. Their motto: "We have more fun than anyone!"Sisters Get Their Kicks on Route 66, by Karen West and Susan Ford-West, chronicles the epic 2,448 mile adventure that may have set a world record. Share the wild ride of over 300 adventurous "Sisters" from the national outdoor women's group, Sisters on the Fly, as they tow their vintage trailers and tell their stories while crossing America's Mother Road from Chicago to Santa Monica. Along the way, experience Route 66's iconic tourist sites, rodeos, dances, karaoke, shopping, museums, flea markets, catered dinners, national parks, parades, dirt roads, and wrong turns.Through over 500 color photographs and the Sisters' stories of courage and empowerment, grief and moving on, sisterhood and camaraderie, this photo journal of their spirited journey across America's legendary Route 66 will hearten readers young and old to embark upon their own bucket-list adventures.

"What a delight! The text is lovely, but the photographs by Karen West (especially the ones of the trailers) are worth the price of the book. A fabulous trip down memory lane!" --Dewitt Jones, National Geographic photographer and keynote speaker "If you truly love Route 66, the legendary path that entertains multitudes of world travelers, then you will most definitely love this book. Sisters Get Their Kicks on Route 66 chronicles the unforgettable Mother Road journey of 300 adventurous women in their vintage trailers. Filled with photographs of many iconic stops, the book also includes revealing profiles of members of Sisters On the Fly (SOTF), a group that definitely lives up to its motto "We have more fun than anyone." --Michael Wallis, best-selling author and co-founder of the Route 66 Alliance "Route 66 had a homecoming of sorts in 2015 when a caravan of bold and audacious modern-day Amelia Earharts piloted their travel trailers in a cross-country flight from Chicago to the Pacific Ocean. Their legendary flight plan paved the way for any woman who's ever had leave-it-all-behind fantasies, which is pretty much every woman I've ever met, me included." --MaryJane Butters, author of Glamping with MaryJane From the Inside Flapn 2014, a group of bold women decided to make history and embark on an unforgettable adventure down America's most famous road a journey of exploration and sisterhood where they could fulfill every woman's fantasy of leaving-it-all-behind. About the Author Karen West, Ed.D., is a retired community college administrator and professor of philosophy. She began her career as a nature photographer in 2002. Her specialties are intimate landscapes and macro botanicals. For the past five years she has been on the road full time in her 1960 Shasta trailer photographing the national parks. She has traveled over 120,000 miles and photographed all but one park (Dry Tortugas) in the contiguous United States. She previously published three books on grant writing. Susan Ford-West is a retired K-12 teacher and administrator. For the past two and one-half years she has practiced the simplicity of sharing 60 square feet with Karen and their toy poodle Butch and the expansiveness of observing the world with new eyes through Karen's lens. As if that is not enough for a lifetime of gratitude, she now has the gift of a community of 6,000+ Sisters with whom to travel, play, learn, and grow a dream come true!
