Herb Lester : Speaking of Portland: A Guide to the Usual and Unusual before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Speaking of Portland: A Guide to the Usual and Unusual:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. like you pick up free somewhere By Carol Brock It is just a folded paper brochure, like you pick up free somewhere. It is a total waste of money! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. This is a slightly amusing, inexpensive map. Less ... By Barbara Casey This is a slightly amusing, inexpensive map. Less than $2, but, with postage, was $5.80 something. Not worth it.

Informed by on-the-ground research, Herb Lester's handy, folded guides uncover what makes a city special - its most distinctive shops, restaurants, cafs, bars, museums and galleries, whether unmissable old favourites, exciting new arrivals or overlooked treasures. Each entry comes with its own brief description, and a basic map helps the reader get their bearings and make plans. Nestled in the damp, verdant and wildly beautiful Pacific Northwest, Portland has it all - nature, a thriving food and drink scene, and plenty of small businesses. In 34 entries the guide reveals the best of the city and its restaurants, food trucks, coffee shops and bars, museums, bookshops and outdoor goods. We've even included an amusement park. Printed on a single sheet of 100% recycled paper, these light, portable guides are an ideal travelling companion.

About the Author Herb Lester Associates publish guides for tourists and locals: witty, pretty, curious and opinionated. We research, write, print and distribute maps and guides to the world's great cities. We seek out the well-used and much-loved, and enjoy the extraordinary as well as the everyday. Old bookshops and new coffee shops, park benches and dive bars, hat shops and haberdashers: this is the world according to Herb Lester.
