The devotions are thought-provoking and can't help but draw one deeper into the heart of Christ. Inspired by Stacey's first "installment" of this guide to plan my own Camino pilgrimage, I am now making note of the wonderful travel tips and valuable reference information included in both books. But regardless of where life's journey may take you, you will find the down-to earth, Spirit-filled, humor-laced cadence of these unique devotional Guidebooks to be a delightful adventure.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Another Wonderful Spiritual and Walking Guide by StaceyBy Ellen GlasshageStacey took me with her on the pathways of her pilgrimage as I read this book. Her descriptions made me feel and appreciate this area of France and this part of the Camino. Even though I know I'll never get to make this particular journey, I love to walk and hike. The meditations and reflection questions can be used by anyone and they will draw you closer to God and deepen your spiritual walk. Stacey truly is a gift writer who has a heart for God, people and hiking.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. A guide worth getting.By CustomerThis book invites a walk with the Lord. The author's vast experience leads the way to a beginner considering the journey, and also one who has already traveled other sojourns on the Camino and would appreciate the guidance for this portion. Nice maps, good recommendations, and a daily devotional with space to journal.

Today's most comprehensive spiritual guide for walking from Lourdes to St Jean de Pied Port in France. Many modern pilgrims desire to walk the primitive pilgrimage route from Lourdes to St Jean Pied de Port, France, and beyond onto the Camino Frances. But, until now, few guides have been published in the English language for the Voie du Pimont Pynren sections of the Camino walk.

About the AuthorStacey Wittig is a Spirit-led Christian, who was transformed by the Camino experience and now writes about hiking and pilgrimage from her home near Flagstaff, Arizona. She has walked over 3300 kilometres on Camino routes in France and Spain.
