Victoria Pybus : Summer Jobs Abroad 2007 (Summer Jobs Worldwide) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Summer Jobs Abroad 2007 (Summer Jobs Worldwide):

Completely revised for 2007, Summer Jobs Abroad describes over 30,000 exciting seasonal vacancies in over fifty countries in Eastern and Western Europe, Africa, Asia, Australasia and Central America. It not only contains an enormous range of paid jobs that give the opportunity to earn money while seeing the world but also a wide variety of voluntary positions that enable people to help others while gaining the unforgettable experience of living and working in another country. The enormous range of opportunities in the book means that everyone can find a summer job to suit their own interests and abilities. Opportunities listed include: Watersports instructors for Greece and Spain. Pony trek leaders and cave tour guides for Ireland. Ground crew for hot air balloons in Switzerland. English teachers from Prague to Peking. Crew and cooks for hotel barges in France. Guides to lead nature walks at a jungle lodge in Peru. Strawberry pickers for Denmark. Yoga center helpers in Greece. Volunteer teachers for village schools in Nepal. Disc jockeys for Italy. Summer Jobs Abroad explains everything needed to land the summer job of a lifetime including: Where and what the jobs are. Who to apply to and when. Details of the wages offered. The period of work and working hours. Whether any previous experience or qualifications are needed. In addition the books country-by-country chapters give an introductory overview of the range of jobs to be found there and include essential information on work permits, visas etc.
