

[FREE] Superstition Wilderness Trails West: Hikes, Horse Rides, and History

Superstition Wilderness Trails West: Hikes, Horse Rides, and History

Jack Carlson, Elizabeth Stewart

**Download PDF | ePub | DOC | audiobook | ebooks*

Download

Read Online

#640326 in Books Clear Creek Publishing 2012-01-26 Original language: English PDF # 1 8.50 x 5.50 x 1.00l, 1.25 #File Name: 1884224091416 pages The Complete and Authoritative Guide to the Western Superstition Wilderness More than 65 treks in and around the Wilderness Never before published trips into the backcountry Intriguing history and folklore of the Superstitions GPS coordinates -- trailheads and key points | File size: 67.Mb

Jack Carlson, Elizabeth Stewart : Superstition Wilderness Trails West: Hikes, Horse Rides, and History before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Superstition Wilderness Trails

West: Hikes, Horse Rides, and History:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Wonderful BookBy Friar Rodney BurnapGreat book . . .read it hike the Superstition Mountains . . .0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Four StarsBy dougbdlThis guide really helped me plan my trip! Essential.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Was not happy with book condition upon arrivalBy Sandra SnyderWas not happy with book condition upon arrival. There were pages that were dog eared and the front cover of the book was creased as if it had been read before.

Discover Arizona's Superstition Wilderness Trails West. Rugged mountains with towering hoodoos, hidden canyons, seasonal creeks and waterfalls, majestic deserts and wildflowers, prehistoric ruins, and prospector camps--all in a National Forest Wilderness less than an hour from Phoenix. Weavers Needle, Superstition Mountain, Charlebois Spring, La Barge Canyon, Red Tanks Canyon, Garden Valley, Peters Canyon, and Peters Mesa are special places that spring to life with this guide's colorful history of the Superstitions. More adventures can be found in the companion book, Superstition Wilderness Trails East. More than 65 treks in and around the Wilderness Clear and simple hike and horse ride directions Easy-to-use topographic and trailhead maps Trips for everyone--rated easy to very difficult Intriguing history and folklore of the Superstitions Never before published trips into the backcountry GPS coordinates--trailheads and key points Trail Guide West--The complete and authoritative guide to the western Superstition Wilderness.

Benjamin Franklin Awards - Silver Award for Best History Book - 2013 --Independent Book Publishers Association
About the Author Jack Carlson and Elizabeth Stewart are the authors of the award winning books Superstition Wilderness Trails East (a companion volume to this book) and Hiker's Guide to the Superstition Wilderness. Jack has been hiking and exploring the Superstition Mountains since 1974. He is a native of Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, and graduated from Pennsylvania State University with a B.S.E.E. degree in 1965. He received an M.B.A. degree in 1974 from Northern Arizona University. In Chicago, Jack was employed with the steel industry and worked on computer automated industrial equipment. In Arizona, he worked as an electrical engineer in semiconductor manufacturing. Jack resides in Tempe, Arizona, where he is the owner and publisher of Clear Creek Publishing. He is a member of the Superstition Mountain Historical Society. Elizabeth has always loved the outdoors. As a child she traveled with her parents on many family vacations to the National Parks where she experienced the freedom of hiking and camping. Elizabeth was born in San Francisco, California and spent two of her high school years in London, England. She graduated from the University of California, Berkeley with an A.B. degree and from the University of Arizona with a J.D. degree. She worked for the Maricopa County Attorney in the Juvenile, Criminal, and Civil Divisions and as an Assistant Attorney General for the State of Arizona in the Civil Division. Elizabeth served a six-year term on the Arizona State Parks Board, including a year as chairman. She is a member of the Arizona History Convention Board, the McFarland State Park Advisory Committee, The Anza Trail Foundation Board, and the Partnership for the National Trails System Board. She resides in Tempe, Arizona.