A series of illustrated guides to the historic sites of America consisting of 12 volumes, each devoted to a particular region of the country. The entries are arranged geographically and include sections on the history of art and literature, the building of homes and the making of fortunes. William B. Logan is a playwright, poet and translator. He wrote the Far West section of the "Literary Guide to the United States". Vance Muse is an editor of "Life" magazine and author of "Old New Orleans".
