Sun never setsBy A CustomerRoute 66, The Diary of A Five Year Journey Across America, began as an afterthought from reading Writng Without Teachers where the author states that writing coherently for ten minutes at a time is all that is required to become an author of a novel or an epic story. 15 years later and having 23 titles listed I still feel its the only healthy way to write a book or a novel. That is, simply putting down the words ten minutes at a time, albeit, coherently.
