Good Advice!By Linda Genevieve DavisReally like the advice about putting a doorstop in a hotel door, When I was in a hotel in Vienna, the staff let themselves in to my room twice with their key to do an afternoon cleaning. They knocked several times, but since I was taking a nap I didn't get up and answer the door. If I had read your book first and taken doorstops with me, I'd have been left undisturbed. Also like the advice on not going with anyone when you get there. I once went with a guy to an inexpensive hotel from a train station in Italy. I was very trusting and he was trustworthy - just worked for the hotel and brought business over to the hotel from the train station. But the situation could have been not on the level and my trust was ill placed. Thanks for all the good advice!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. An Essential Packing Item!By T.
