By A Customer
This book was extremely helpful for our family trip to Branson. The information is excellent and surprisingly on-the-dot correct. We stayed in this great bed breakfast that was highly recommended and could not have had a better stay. The information on picking shows and times to attempt driving through town made everything so much easier than we could have imagined. Anyone traveling to Branson should definitely get this book and plan for a wonderful time! You will love it!

Unbiased, unafraid, and utterly truthful, this guide to getting the best values in Missouri's country music mecca gives travelers the lowdown on Branson: the best deals in accommodations, transportation, dining and entertainment. Honest evaluations compiled by straight-shooting teams of independent researchers. Maps.
