Jeremy Bold, Tyler Bold, Gwendolyn Hoberg, Richard Hoberg, Bruce Ringstrom : The Walk Across North Dakota before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Walk Across North Dakota:

Over the course of two summers, five young friends traversed North Dakota by foot, starting at the Montana border near Beach and finishing in Fargo. Their more-than-400-mile trek is an exploration of backroads, small towns, wildlife, and terrain, a deliberately unhasty quest in search of what it means to be from North Dakota.
