Time Out's 1,000 Things to Do in New York is an indispensable handbook for locals and tourists, as well as a delightful armchair read. Packed with current information and up-to-date maps with venues marked by color-coded bullets, the book includes celebrity suggestions for favorite haunts, quirky shops, hidden bars, and unusual weekend activities. Top-ten lists, pleasant walks, lovely views, picnic spots, must-visit restaurants and shops, and unusual takes on well-known attractions it's all here and offered from the candid perspective of a team of local journalists. New sidebars and color photographs add punch, while the fun index details themes, seasonal ideas, free stuff, and more to help New Yorkers (and visiting wannabes) get the most out of the Big Apple.

"Warning - take this book to New York with you and you may find your weekend break wasn't quite long enough after all." The Daily Express "Recommended" The Independent
About the Author
Founded in 1968, Time Out has grown from humble beginnings into the leading resource for anyone wanting to know what's happening in the world's greatest cities. Alongside our influential weeklies in London, New York, Chicago and Dubai, we publish more than 20 magazines in cities as varied as Beijing and Beirut; a range of travel books, with City Guides now joined by pocket-sized Shortlist series; and an information-packed website. The company remains proudly independent, still owned by Tony Elliott four decades after he launched Time Out London. Written by local experts, and illustrated with original photography, our books also retain their independence. No business has been featured because it has advertised, and all restaurants and bars are visited and reviewed anonymously.
