Any time we take a trip, we buy one. I'll keep it simple... 1. There are tons of pictures. 2. There is a nice map. 3. It fits in my back pocket (sticks out a little). 4. It's glossy so it can get a little wet and be ok. 5. It breaks things down in such a way that you can easily see the highlights in any city. 6. I'll mention tons of pictures again because if you compare this to a Fodor's side by side you will see why you want this one. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. If you don't like to research and want a go-to guide that is ... By RebeccaWell written, but I felt it did not offer 10 sights I would want to see. There is so much to see in DC and it is may be worth finding your interests and go without buying this book. If you don't like to research and want a go-to guide that is planned for you, this may fit the bill. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. REALLY GREAT! By Donna Eva This is is even more awesome than I thought it was going to be! It's a compact size and it has so much information and a lot of pictures which are really nice. It tells prices of activities and restaurants in the city, show you where the places are on a map. It has page full of things to do with the kids and things to do with nightlife. Everything you'd ever want about Memorials and it has maps of Smithsonian Museums, so you choose what you want to see then follow the map and go there! It has a portable map to. Also tells you the best shops and other sites just outside the city. It has Hotel choses at the very back of the book if your looking for one but It's only 2 pages so there is still a lot to see in this book. I totally recommend buying it!!!
