Resorts Magazine has been a point of reference for luxury hospitality around the world since 2005. Every year, Resorts Magazine chooses the world's best 100 resorts, conferring on them the Resorts Magazine Hospitality Awards. The Top 100 directory originates from the experience of this team. All of these resorts are visited and chosen without economic or advertising compromises. The real excellence of hospitality. Luxury, exclusivity, service, but also history, fascination, atmosphere. The photograph of an evolving market which knows no crisis. Each resort is presented on a page with various images, score in hundredths, the services offered and a brief comment. A series of maps and indices assist the readers in their search. Top 100 is an instrument of irremissible choice for those who demand the best. Useful for the attentive traveller but also for professionals of the sector who in this guide will find the state of the art of this sector.
