This book was perfect for me as it showed me some fantastic, nature oriented places that I know I must visit. I'm not into seeing cities when I travel, I just want to be in the trees, enjoy the ocean and revel in the beauty of our planet.

Traveling to foreign countries doesnt just open your eyes to how vibrant of societies exist abroad but also comes with a new respect for life at home. Hopping out of the door with your luggage bags delivers an ecstatic feeling. The dreams leading up to those days only increase your excitement. One should reflect and think about travelling, of all its substantial offerings, some people cannot avoid themselves being on a doubtful state as they have assumed that it will just injure their pockets or the risks of being in a foreign environment, but careful preparation, safe travel measures and a mind set for excitement will easily help you overcome those negative feelings.. Big metropolitan cities are just there but the real deal might not be so apparent. Big cities offer just that though a big city feel. You can get that at home as easily as abroad. In this book though, we are looking for something that is out of the mainstream,
